Chester Sanderson Dies From a Heart Attack

Chester Sanderson, a well-known resident of this community and the vicinity of Verdon for the past twenty-five years, passed into the Great Beyond on Sunday evening, December 17 at 8:00 o'clock. He had suffered from asthma for a period of about fifteen years.

At the time of his death, he was forty-four years old, but cool days apparently shortened his life.

Chester was born at Lodi, Wis., on March 26, 1894, and settled in Verdon at the age of nineteen, making his home on his father's farm. He was married to Thresia Udelhofen in 1918 and to this union was born five children, Elsie, Belva, Robert, Delbert and Wayne. He and his family moved to a farm near Groton in 1929 and since that time they have made their home in the vicinity of Groton. He moved to Groton approximately a year ago, but his failing days came rapidly, which brought great sorrow to his family and relatives.

Mr. Sanderson is survived by his wife, five children, his father, Luman Sanderson, three brothers and one sister, Ivan, Earl, Allen and Mrs. Richard Bahr and their families.

Pall-bearers for the funeral were Roy Bonn, Fred Zoellner, Art. Huson, George Hines, Miles Bingham and Henry Foth.

Funeral services were conducted at St. John's Catholic church on Wednesday morning at 9:00 o'clock by Father Shanley and the remains laid to rest in the Groton Catholic cemetery.
